QUICK GUIDE · FABIOCOSTAPH.COM

FABIO COSTA PH in one page

Photography, travel and exploration — a portfolio, free tools to plan the light, and a members' map of places worth the trip.

1 Explore

The map of my journeys: every astronaut is a place I've photographed.

- Tap an astronaut: photos, notes and the story behind it.
- Search (magnifier, top right) finds places, photos and articles.
- The full-screen button opens the map on the whole screen.

2 Gallery

All my photographs, by category.

- Tap a photo for full screen; on the phone, turn it sideways.
- Tap ♡ to build a selection and send it in one message.
- Every photo is available for licensing and as a fine-art print.

3 Journal — Field Notes

A magazine of reportage and practical guides: places, current affairs, people, nature, photography and technique.

- Reportage: the story, with big photos.
- Field guides: when to go, where to park, the walk, the settings — in the "At a glance" box.
- Contributors write at #write; every piece is reviewed before it's published.

4 Tools

Free tools to plan a shoot, wherever you are or wherever you're going.

- Sun & Moon: golden and blue hour, twilight, moon phase, Milky Way core.
- Planner: 3D terrain with the real horizon; sun, moon and Milky Way behind the mountains.
- Analyze your shot: a shooting plan from a test photo — it never leaves your device.

5 SpotFolk · free membership

The travel toolkit built by travellers: 8,000+ places, signed and reviewed by the folk, plus trips, Pass it on and live alerts.

- Everyone sees a preview; members see everything, exact locations included.
- Join free at fabiocostaph.com/#join with your email: you're in straight away.
- See the SpotFolk quick guide for everything else.

6 App, languages, crew

- Install it: iPhone → Safari → Share → Add to Home Screen. Android → Chrome → ⋮ → Install app. Tools work offline.
- 5 languages: tap the globe at the top (EN · IT · ES · FR · DE).
- The crew (#crew): writers, photographers, local experts and developers. Want to join? "Join the crew" at the bottom of every page.
- Feedback: the link in the footer — one minute, all optional.
